

Contents

■ Introduction i
■ Research Papers
The language management of address terms in conversation: the comparison of the native situations and contact situations between Japanese and Chinese speakers Bingjing WANG 1
The adjustments to make close relationship between Japanese students and international students Atsuko MAEZAWA 13
Language management of Koreans who speak Japanese with fluency: Focusing on pre-adjustments Kyongseon KIM 29
A study of greetings at home visit: A case study of leave-taking behavior between Japanese and Sinhalese Sri Lankan native speakers Sajeewani DISSANAYAKA 47
Interaction problems of Vietnamese residents in Japan Than Thi My Binh 53
How two receivers respond to a question: An analysis of the conversation among three acquaintances in Japanese contact and native situations Miwako OHBA 59
Turn-taking mechanism in Japanese Sign Language conversations Kouhei KIKUCHI 77
The language management of the final particle in contact situations: focusing on the final particles "Ne" and "Yo" used by non-native speakers. Minjeong KO 97
Multi-language users' footing in contact situations Hidehiro MURAOKA 113
■ The Record of the Society for the Study of Language Management 130
■ Contributors 133