

Contents

Acknowledgements.....11

Introduction

Lisa Fairbrother, Jiří Nekvapil and Marián Sloboda
Methodology in language management research.....15

Part I: Linking language management research with other theories

Richard B. Baldauf Jr. and M. Obaidul Hamid
Language planning ‘schools’ and their approaches and methodologies.....43

István Lanstyák
On the strategies of managing language problems67

Part II: Exploring the connections between micro- and macro-level management

Björn Jernudd
Questions submitted to two language cultivation agencies in Sweden.....101

Martin Beneš, Martin Prošek, Kamila Smejkalová and Veronika Štěpánová
Interaction between language users and a language consulting centre:
Challenges for language management theory and research119

Nor Liza Ali, Richard B. Baldauf Jr., Nor Mawati Mohd Shariff and Amerrudin Abd Manan
Utilisation of Language Management Theory in framing interview pro formas141

Stephanie Rudwick
The struggle to promote an African language at a
South African university: A language management perspective.....157

Part III: Exploring micro-level management

J. V. Neustupný

Methodology of Japanese studies: The stage of data collection.....185

Hidehiro Muraoka, Sau Kuen Fan and Minjeong Ko

Methodological considerations for the study of accustomed language management: An ethnographic approach.....201

Junko Saruhashi

Personal empowerment through language management231

Lisa Fairbrother

Using email interaction reports to gain access to the management cycle: A study of Japanese students during study abroad259

Hirofumi Asada

The longitudinal management of speech styles by overseas and local students in a Japanese university context.....283

Magdalena Hromadová

Managing a literary text: The perspective of a native and a non-native speaker303

Part IV: Exploring attitudes towards languages and varieties

Kamila Mrázková

The focus group discussion as a source of data for language management research: Discussing the use of non-standard language on television.....329

Helena Özörencik

Family language management in a multilingual setting: The case of Turkish families in Prague.....347

Epilogue

J. V. Neustupný

The historical position of Language Management Theory371

Contributing authors379

Author Index.....385

Subject Index.....391